MID-AM REPORT

Ust past halfway of the 18-race Mid-Am season only 27 of the 172 registered drivers have the minimum three finishes/four starts. That means in just 13 of the 44 Mid-Am classes has someone qualified for a championship. Of course, eight races remain. A zero-points driver could still score the max.

Three drivers are now listed on the Driver of the Year tally. ITE leader Andy Wolverton (Neb) leads with 72 points from seven wins. Also at 72 is IT7 leader Charles Casteel (KC), a 6-time winner. FM leader Charles Dillon (KC) is ranked third after taking his fifth win at the KVRG doubleheader.

At 57 points is ITC leader Curt Weilandich (StL), one runner-up finish at Memphis the only thing between him and a DotY ranking.

The two largest classes are both topped with 56-point scores. Mark Zwolle (MidS) actually is fairly comfortably atop SPEC MIATA with 22 points of margin over Oren Tucker (Ark), who is up just two on Brian Patnode (KC). In ITA, leader Jeff Seelig (StL) enjoys only a 2-point edge on Mac Spikes (MidS), who is eight points up on Ed Mabry (Ark).

Four wins in four starts distinguish the leaders in three classes. One more victory earns each a spot in the DotY rankings. Of the three the only one with a challenger is Andy Wolverton (Neb) in ITR, who has Jeff Goodnow (KC) but one victory behind. Ralph Woodard (Neb) is only three points behind Goodnow. Four-time winners John Nelson (KC) in S2000 and Kenneth Kirkland (Ark) in FORMULA 500 have no challengers.

With 45-point scores, three wins and one 2nd place, Bill Denton (MidS) tops ITS by 12 points over Mark Andrews (StL), while Matt Guzowski (StL) sits atop FORMULA VEE with a 21-point margin over Patrick Hughey (KC).

SPEC RACER FORD is typically tight with KC drivers in the top four places. Robin Kirkland at 42 points has just a 3-point margin over Jim Coté Jr. Duane Dean is another 6 behind and Marc Wilson sits in fourth.

Bernie Mermis (Wich) has 40 points to lead ITB but perennial champ Chris Albin is on the move, 4 points behind with three wins after spending much of the season chasing gremlins in his usually bulletproof VW Golf.
